4BAGS TO HOST ELVIS PRESLEY CELEBRATION
– “It’s All About Elvis!” boasts Elvis Purses, Author, Artist, and Performance –

FAIRHOPE, AL (May 4, 2009) – 4BAGS BOUTIQUE, seller of unique designer handbags with purse-onality, is hosting “It’s All About Elvis!” on Saturday, May 23, 2009, from 1:00 until 5:00 p.m. at 40 South Section Street in Fairhope, AL.

4Bags owners Sharon Davis and her sister Leslie Fram often bring their love of music and bags together. At this event, they will be selling a limited number of purses made from Elvis’ 45 RPM vinyl records and matching covers. Special guests include artist and designer, Kati Higginbotham, and Kristi Weldon, author of Health and Happiness Elvis Style. These sisters were raised on Elvis by their parents, Fairhope residents Jan and Jim Scarbrough.

“Kristi and Kati have such a passion for music, Elvis, and the arts. We wanted to have an Elvis party in the shop. After months of planning and discussion, we’re so excited to host “It’s All About Elvis!”” says Davis. The idea was conceived shortly after Weldon’s book debuted in June 2007. Kati has sold other pieces in 4Bags’ Fairhope boutique, which have included not only paintings but also designer purses.

“It’s All About Elvis!” will feature readings and signings of Elvis books, a presentation of original Elvis art, peanut butter and banana snacks, a drawing for an Elvis Presley Album Tote, and an appearance and special performance by The King himself.
